

Weight Training Orientation for Teens (13-16 years)

In order to ensure that your weight training sessions are both safe and enjoyable, it is mandatory that you attend a weight training orientation session. Orientations are free with the price of a single admission. Here are the simple steps which you should take before beginning your training:

- 1. Take this form home and have a parent or legal guardian sign Section 1 below and assist you in completing the attached PAR-Q form.
- 2. Phone or come in-person to the False Creek Community Centre to make an orientation appointment.
- 3. Have Section 2 of this form completed and signed by the instructor who does your orientation.
- 4. Return this completed form in its entirety and the completed PAR-Q to the False Creek Community Centre when you come for your first workout.

Section 1:

(Instructor)

PARENTAL/GUARDIAN CONSENT FORM
I, the parent/legal guardian of orientation session and to then use the unsupervise	give my permission for him/her to both complete the weight training ad weight room at False Creek Community Centre.
Signature:	Date:
Phone #:
Section 2:
WEIGHT TRAINING ORIENTATION FORM
This form will verify thatCommunity Centre on this date:	has attended a basic weight training orientation session at the False Creek
Signature:	